Attention 2018 Prospective Vendors & Entertainers!

The Fort McMurray Urban Market team is very excited to be announcing our dates and times for the 2018 season. We are happy to tell you that we will be continuing on a bi-weekly schedule on Wednesdays.

We are now in full planning mode for the upcoming 2018 market season! If you are, or anyone you know is, interested in being a vendor or entertainer at the 2018 Fort McMurray Urban Market, we are hosting an information session on:

Tuesday May 8, from 6 to 7 p.m.
McMurray Experience at Jubilee Plaza, 9909 Franklin Ave.

During the meeting we will:

1. Have application forms available.
2. Guide you through the application process and the requirements to be a vendor.
3. Provide guidance on how to be a successful vendor.
4. Answer any questions you may have.
5. Get your input on creative ways to make the market even more exciting and successful.

For those unable to attend the event we will continue to inform you via email of any important information relevant to the Fort McMurray Urban Market.
