

Here for You

Public Information Session #52

June 21, 2017: 2 to 8 p.m.

Here for You: Urban Market

Public Participation: 42 Residents

Internal Participation: Wood Buffalo Recovery Task Force (RTF), Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo Community Strategies

Background:

- As part of the ongoing commitment by the RTF to engage and inform residents about the recovery and rebuild process, the task force will be present at all Urban Market events throughout the summer.
- There are a total of 11 Urban Markets, which run bi-weekly until September 20, 2017.

Feedback:

- Despite the inclement weather, there was a solid attendance at the Urban Market. Residents appreciated the fact the event carried on through the bad weather and expressed their excitement for upcoming events this summer.
- Some residents had questions about the rehabilitation of firebreak areas and about work done in the Birchwood Trails.
 - Residents were told that to ensure the firebreak areas remain in place to protect homes from a potential future wildfire, the Municipality is seeding grass within the first 30 metres of the firebreak areas.
 - These grassy areas will be added to the Municipal mowing and maintenance program.
 - All trails damaged or destroyed during the wildfire will be restored to their pre-fire condition.

Next Sessions:

Here for You: St. Anne's School

Thursday, June 22: 6 to 8 p.m.

Topic: Firebreak Rehabilitation

Here for You: Urban Market

Saturday, July 1: 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Topic: General Recovery Information

Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo

@RMWoodBuffalo

www.rmwb.ca/engage

REGIONAL MUNICIPALITY
OF WOOD BUFFALO