

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS Human Rights Day is observed every year on December 10th as a commemoration of the day on which, in 1948, the United Nations General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights; and

WHEREAS in 1950, the Assembly passed resolution 423 (V), inviting all States and interested organizations to observe December 10th of each year as Human Rights Day; and

WHEREAS the human rights principles acknowledge that discrimination targets individuals and groups that are vulnerable to attack: the elderly, the disabled, women and girls, the poor, minorities, and all those who are perceived as different. However, these victims of discrimination are not alone; and

WHEREAS individuals, institutions and social profits come together to recommit to the principle that, all persons are equal in dignity, rights and responsibilities without regard to age, race, religious beliefs, colour, gender identity, physical ability, ancestry, place of origin, sexual orientation or otherwise.

THEREFORE NOW, I, Don Scott, Mayor of the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo, do hereby proclaim December 10, 2019 as:

“Human Rights Day: Honouring Diverse Voices”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunder set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo in Fort McMurray, Alberta, this 4th day of December 2019.

Don Scott, Q.C.
Mayor
